Happy New Year to you all and Welcome to issue 004 of RETRO 64 Magazine :D the first issue in 2019 :D I hope you enjoy it and keep Supporting it & Spreading it where you can TY :)

For a More In-depth info on the Mag & Me Please Read issue 001 ;)

If you as a Developer want to send me a New Retro Game or Clone System for review or if you as a Reader want to send me something Retro to Review or just want to help me with stuff I need for the Magazine :) please send it to the union: Retro Hunters, postbox, Møllegade 96B, 8660, Denmark (ad "R64" on the Back of the Post or on the side of the Box ty) I get the Post from them :) so if you do send me stuff TY so much :D

RETRO 64 Magazine,s Platformer is on my New Blog:

Keep up to date:
QR2 ALL MAG

To issue 003, I was sure I had the final story about (GS Vs the Big N) But when I was asked by GTV to find some Stuff in German I found some New interviews with Chris Hülsbeck & I have Sadly come to the Conclusion, that he's not reliable as a re-teller of Past events :(as when He's asked about what happened with GS & N he gives a different story depending on the interviewer & I have listened to many now eehhh... :(

ok so I live in DK, home of LEGO, & I know they do that too. Which is why I can't get any MEGA Blocks in DK & we know this is how the Big N FX kept SEGA out of the US for many years ;) so I believe with the info I have gathered & Chris Hülsbecks statements, I am 98% sure this is what happened: The Big N not seeing them as a real threat just Threatened all the Sellers not to Sell GS or they would no longer sell them Nintendo Products. But then a British Publisher Released GS in the UK with this UGLY Cover with the Statement: (The Brothers Are History!) This was the final straw & they then Threatened Rainbow Arts that they would send over a lawyer... so that was that ;)

I hope I can 100% close this debate one day...

RETRO LIVINGROOM TURE

--- GAMES Consoles ANIME MANGA Toys ---

Hey Happy New Year to you all and Welcome to my Girls Retro Living Room Tour :D so What do I Collect for ??? well C64 & PC Engino & Nintendo EU+Japan & SEGA EU+ some Japan ons & SONY PlayStation & the Zemmix a series of Korea Console that play MSX Cartridge :D it's on my bucket list to own all of them :D

I don't have a tooon of room as you can see, so I don't go for a Complete Collec-tions on a system & I don't want to, even if I had the space ;D I only collect what I like or think is special in a way, or I feel a connection to :D

How ever, I do go for a complete collection on some series I like, FX Kirby :D I absolutely adore Kirby, so I am going for all the Games on All the systems :D I almost got all the Japan ones now, but I am yet to get any EU PAL ones :(there are so F-ing expensive so I got to find them in the wild or get super lucky on an EBay auction one day :)

Then there's the Asterix Games, where I also go for a complete collection on all Systems, so far I got the NES one and the 2 SNES ones :D & the 2 SEGA Master System ones & 1 of the SEGA Mega Drive ones :D so I still need the GB GBC & GBA & the PS1 & PS2 ones :D I do a full History on Asterix in a future Magazine.

I love Ninja Kun and I almost got a complete collection, I am just missing 1 Famicom Game and 1 GS Game :D

I love SailorMoon as you can see & I would love a full collection there too, but there are too Expensive & there are too many RPGs and I am not a Fan of Heavy Text based games with turn style Based attacks or wandering around forever, trying to find something orsome one ;) Zzzz... This doesn't mean I only like easy games :) I love Puzzle games like Fx. Tricky Kick :d You can read about that game in MAG Issue 001 :D

I love Collecting for the Famicom and the Disk

& the Super Famicom :D often you can get Games from Japan for next to nothing on EBay and there is so many Games you never knew Existed, that are Super fun or cute or just hard like many games from the 80's was :D

As you can see I do also collect Anime & I even got some Animation Sells & Manga & Comic & Figurines & LEGO + Mega Blocks & Plushies & some LP's For My Girls Retro Living Room :D

I hope you liked what you've seen & if you want to see more Photos of my Retro Living Room, then I have put More up on The Blog:

I'm Sorry

Name: Gonbi no i'm sorry!
Developer: Coreland
Publisher: SEGA
Platform: Arcade
Relist as: Arcade-Kid
Release: in JAPAN 1985
in EU & US is unknown
Level Typ: Maze
Play Mode: Single player
Two players = Switching Mod
Cabinet Type: Upright
Arcade system: Sega System 1
CPU: Z80 @ 4 MHz
Sound: Z80 @ 4 MHz
SN76496 @ 4 MHz
SN76496 @ 2 MHz
Display: Raster
256 x 224 @ 60 Hz
1536 palette colors

This is a Review of 1 of SEGA's most obscure & political Theme Arcade Games ever from 1985 The name of the game is (Gonbi no i'm sorry!) Or (i'm sorry!) And ? there I call The man you play as an Antihero-ish Man???

The man is:

Kakuei Tanaka, the 40 Prime minister of Japan, He was a successful businessman who in 1955 became part of the Liberal Democratic Party And then in 1971 he became the Prime Minister of Japan and he was at the time the highest rated Prime minister of the public ever, More love than any that had come before him :)

In the first part of him being in office he did a lot of good for Japan, like making a better infrastructure, supporting smaller & poorer Cities and a free medical plan for the older generation, He was a well loved Man

He resigned as Prime minister in 1974, & then in 1976 it was discovered that he took bribes of around 2 thousand millions dollars from FX an airport company :(

He as the Japanese said Lost Face, this was a big deal back then as it was the Worst shaming in the Japanese society and never really goes away...

People was sooo afraid of losing face that it in 1992 Caused the big Japan stock market Crash because rather than admitting mistakes people would do all they could to hide it, being afraid to lose face = losing it all... So after this losing face, it's not as big a thing because of this bad consequences it had then, Japan today still suffers from this Stock market Crash.

This of course was a huge Scandal and is what this Game is loosely inspired by...

Ok so Before I Explain what this game is, I Probably need to explain Japanese Humor :)

So Japanese humor is More physical than joke oriented, the reason is that the Japanese People is shy People when it comes to feelings & Sexuality FX most Couples would never kiss in Public just holding hands in Public means you are a Real couple :) But of course it has its young Rebels that don't care and kiss in Public anyway ;D

Another example is the React-box on almost all of Japanese TV Programs, it's a little Video Box in a corner with a person watching the Program and Reacting to it ??? Yes this is odd to say the Least but it helps the Japanese viewers to now have to react to the Program, Like is this funny do i laugh now... yes I can't get my head around it too???

But this helps the Japanese viewers to relax, I mean it's clearly not like the Japanese are Robots :) their society is just shy about showing Emotions...

Which means Star Japanese Comedians has to use Physical humor stuff like running around the Streets of Tokyo in a tight Black SM Suit showing a ton of skin and Basically horinzng People by rubbing them self on them & so on, so in Short they do Extreme stuff to get a Reaction from the victim = they do something that's soooo much aut of the Japanese Comfort zone that they can't help but to Laugh :D

JAPANORAMA

So how do the Game play ? Well for starters it's actually a good game and odd but it kind of has a funny charm to it. You play as Kakuei Tanaka and his/your goal is to steal as much gold as possible And get it to Kakuei Tanakas house.

See this 2006 Japanorama EP for an Example:

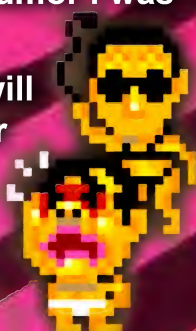

Each Level is a 1 Box top down Maze were you have to collect all the gold in the Level, Once you've done that you go to the next Level But you have to avoid all the Men in Black that I assume is some sort of Security?, If they catch you this is where you see the physical humor I was talking about...

Yes the Men in Black will strap you down to your underwear while wearing a SM-getup himself & whipping your with a Whip...

Other Enemies include a Moonwalking Michael Jackson impersonator & a Marilyn Monroe (she Likes Presidents after all, right) & a Track runner & a Big Strong Black man in Blue undies & even a Statue of himself coming alive when you pass it :) Luckily you can Punch or hit them with a Fan to disable them :D But there are physical Enemies too, Like Rolling Barrels & a Fire hydrant that shoots Fire ??? yes Some little kids Nightmare is real in this Game lol You can't punch this but you can jump over the Barrels & the Fire hydrants you have to time your passing, so you don't get hit... There's a lot of fun to be had in this game & a lot more Bizarre and wacky stuff to be discovered :D

The Japanese Arcade cabinet was one of the many Candy Cabs Like Fx UINDI or DOMISHIATA 50 from: Konami Or a Predecessor to SEGAs: Aero City cabinet,

The EU & US cabinet could have been any that was Compatible with the English Kid. We know they were made but how many was sold, if any is unknown.

I AM IN LOVE WITH THIS GAME :D
I was on EBay one day looking for Games and Came across this cover with the two Couples on it and it looked really interesting and when I saw the back I notes that it seemed like you could play as the girls too, so I was all yaayyyy :D got to know more :D

I learned that this game was part of a Series Named (Kunio-kun) by (Technos) it's a really Big and long Series that is still on going to this day...

we got some of the Game in the EU & US but with Modified Graphics & a new Name yes it's the Games Renegade & River City Ransom...

くにおくんの挽歌

NAME: Shin Nekketsu Kouha
Kunio Tachi no Banka Kun
Developer: Almanic Corp.
Publisher: Technos Japan Corp
Designer: Yoshihisa Kishimoto
Composer: Kazunaka Yamane
Series Name: Kunio-kun
Platform: Super Famicom
Release: JP: April 29, 1994
Gender: Beat 'em up
Mode: Single-player
& Two-player

the series is long and as you can tell a bit Complicated :/ ;) but I will definitely do a future issue on the Kunio-kun Series :D

ok so back to this game in the Series :D

yes you can play as the 2 Girls Name Kyōko & Misako, but not before they Join up with the two Bad Boys Named Kunio & Riki...

This works like Fx, The Turtles were you switch between the 4 Characters, in this case the 2 boys & the 2 Girls, or if you play in 2Player mode you each play as

1 of the 2 couples & switch in between the boy & the Girl

I love a Game were I don't have to play as a Man ;) well at least not all the time in the Game ;P

It would be nice if all games had the option to play as a boy or a Girl ;D just saying, But a MarioSette might be going to far, but then you got the Gina Sitters instead hihhihi Read issue003 ;D

Anyhow I am getting a bit ahead of myself here, so yes this game was a Japan Exclusive, so can you play it?...

Yes absolutely it's a BeatEmUp so it's straightforward, but you will miss out on the Great storyline and interesting Plot :(But don't fear, you can now get an English Rom of this game :D

I been playing this on my PSP :D but I really wanted this game so I could play it on my Super Famicom & I was lucky to win it on EBay, for under half of what it goes for normally on EBay, it still hurt my tiny wallet though ;) Av... but sadly this was on its way during that big typhoon that hit Japan, so it got Lost and I never got it :(eeehhhh...

ok so you can get the English Rom or a English Repro Cart for the SNES :D and I Definitely recommend you do that or you miss out on a great story, well for the 80's anyway hihih... just listen to this plot:

Kunio and Riki are convicted of a hit and run & the pair are imprisoned in a juvenile correction facility. However, the two claim to be innocent. The next morning, the duo are visited by Kunio's friend Hiroshi, who informs them of a series of suspicious events transpiring in & around Nekketsu High School, including sightings of a boy with a strong resemblance to Kunio. Suspecting that they may have been framed for a crime they didn't commit, Kunio & Riki escape from prison & set out to find the person who framed them & clear their names.

Hiroshi: C'mon, this isn't a joke!

As far as a BeatEmUp Game goes, it's not the Best one but good & a decent one that utilizes all 4 SNES buttons + the 4 Characters switching makes this a good BeatEmUp game which explains the high Price Tag on it :D

I think Part of why it doesn't feel as good as Fx Final Fight & Streets of Reces is that the Characters in those two games a full Size heights characters were the Characters in this game are Cutis = less Space for Hit Detection as were a full size Caricature as more space for hit detection ;D

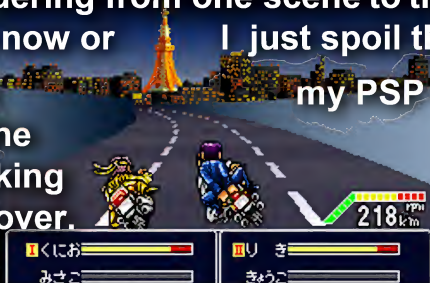

so if they were full size, it be as great a BeatEmUp as Final Fight & Streets of Reces is :D but I do believe there's 1 game in the Kunio-kun Series were you play them in full Size :D

But I think for this game I definitely prefer the Cutis style Characters :D And it's not all just walk & BeatEmUp No at one point you get to drive Motorbikes and battle enemy Motorbikes Gangs :D it's a nice and a fun switch from the wandering from one scene to the next Beating up baddies... I won't tell you more now or I just spoil the Experience for you :D

I have played this on my PSP :) IDN if I got a bad Rom but I could not save on the PSP? It stopped working and I had to start all over.

But this Game Has a Number-Save System so when you want to stop, just hit the Pause Button and you'll see a Number you can ride down and when you then want to play it again, you just put in the Number and VOILA you start with full health at the part were you ended the game :D so no biggie ;D
